

Index of Georgia Post Roads Issues

Francis J. Crown, Jr.

The first issue of Georgia Post Roads was published in September 1991. The stated purpose was not as “a replacement for the GPHS Bulletin but rather a means to keep the lines of communication open between members of the society and to provide timely information of interest to all members.” The subheading in the banner of the early issues sums up this up: “Newsletter of the Georgia Postal History Society.” Beginning with the January 1994 issue GPR took on a more formal role as noted by the new subheading in the banner: “Publication of the Georgia Postal History Society.”

Georgia Post Roads began in the early days of computers, scanners, and printers. The earliest issues were printed on a dot matrix printer and photocopied. The March 1992 issue included the first images which were scanned using a hand scanner. In May 1993 issue was printed on a laser printer. Soon after a flat bed scanner was added to the tools used to produce Georgia Post Roads.

The pages of Georgia Post Roads were reproduced by photocopying for all issues through Volume 11, Number 2 (April 2001). Starting with Volume 11, Number 3 (June 2001) the pages were printed and folded as a booklet.

The May 1995 issue (5:3) was the first issue that featured gray scale images instead of black and white images.

The Fall 2010 (18:3) issue was the first that included color images.

The chart below gives the volume, issue number and whole number of each issue of GPR. Note the volume and number are listed in proper sequence. Corrections are listed following the chart. Whole numbers did not appear until the October 2002 issue. Whole numbers in brackets indicate the issue did not include a whole number.

The number of pages in each issue is shown with the actual numbering in parentheses.

Footnotes explain any errors.
